Scam Alert: Protect Your Information!

We've seen a rise in scammers posing as financial institutions – including RVA Financial. If you receive a call or text asking for personal details like your debit card number, PIN, one-time passcode, or online banking password - it's a scam.

- ✓ RVA Financial will never ask you to provide this information unsolicited.
- ⊗ Never share a one-time code you receive via text or email with anyone who contacts you.
- ▶ If someone asks whether you use payment apps like Zelle, Venmo, or Cash App, be cautious – it's likely a scam attempt.

Remember: If you didn't contact us first, don't give out your information. When in doubt, hang up and call us directly at a number you trust. Your security is our priority.

Celebrating 75 Years—Together

Celebrating 75 years is more than just a milestone—it's a testament to RVA Financial's unwavering commitment to our members and the Richmond community. Since day one, we've focused on expanding access to financial resources and helping people take control of their financial journeys.

While we've grown and evolved, our mission remains the same: to put people first and provide the tools they need to succeed. We're proud to support the underbanked, empower small businesses, and contribute to Richmond's continued growth.

As we mark this anniversary, we do so with deep gratitude—and renewed dedication to building a stronger future, together.

You're Invited!

Join us for our Annual Meeting on October 22, 2025—an evening for members, staff, friends, and family to come together in celebration of where we've been and where we're headed.

Lobby Renovation in Progress!!

We want to let you know that our main lobby (in the Robin Hood Rd. Location) will be under construction from July 1 through the end of October. During this time, you may notice some changes to access and service areas, and we sincerely apologize for any inconvenience this may cause.

This renovation is part of our continued commitment to improving your experience at RVA Financial. We're excited to bring you a more beautiful, modern, and welcoming lobby that reflects the quality service you deserve—and we sincerely thank you for your patience and understanding as we make these upgrades. We can't wait to welcome you back into the new space this fall!
